The memoranda I enclosed are quite sharply critical of the thinking outlined in your letter to Mr. Dulles of September 18. I know, however, that you thrive on controversy and that, in this field of forecasting Chinese Communist developments, there is room for wide differences of opinion. Hence, I am sending these along to you merely in an attempt to be of assistance to you and your group on your China project, and not with the idea that you undertake to repudiate them specifically nor with any implication that they represent an official statement of Agency views.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]
